

Professional in Destination Management Program Credit Request Form

Destination Marketing Association International members* who attend approved educational breakout sessions will receive one credit per session towards their Professional in Destination Management (PDM) certificate. Past meeting credits are awarded after the form below is completed, returned and reviewed by Destination Marketing Association International. The Association allows for up to 9 certificate credits to be earned by attending courses sponsored by allied organizations. PDM credits expire five years after they are earned and these credits will not be reinstated.

Please apply the following credit hours towards my Professional in Destination Management (PDM) certificate.

 Note: Only those with an individual DMAI membership are eligible to receive education credits.
